

Workshop Program

-December 1 (Mon)-

- 13:00-13:15 Opening Address
Eitaro WADA (RIHN, Japan)
- <Session 1>
13:15-15:15 Lake Biwa-Yodo River watershed management
- 13:15-13:45 "Multi-disciplinary research for understanding interactions between humans and nature in the Lake Biwa-Yodo River watershed: Hierarchical watershed management concept"
Shigeo YACHI (RIHN, Japan)
- 13:45-14:15 "Multi-disciplinary research for understanding interactions between humans and nature in the Lake Biwa-Yodo River watershed: Support to find resident's vision required in a river basin and adjust between classes"
Takuya TANAKA (RIHN, Japan)
- 14:15-15:15 Discussion
- 15:30-16:00 Break
- <Session2>
16:00-18:00 Lessons from watershed management in Asia
- 16:00-16:30 To Be Announced
Koji TANAKA (The Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University, Japan)
- 16:30-17:00 Collaborative Local Forest Governance in Kalimantan, Indonesia
Makoto INOUE (The University of Tokyo, Japan)
- 17:00-18:00 Discussion
- 18:30-20:30 Reception at Shiran Kaikan

-December 2 (Tue)-

<Session 3>

9:30-11:30

Overcoming conflict towards consensus building on watershed management

9:30-10:00

Consensus building for better local natural resource management in Bangladesh –prospects for horizontal and vertical expansion.

Roger LEWINS (Fisheries Consultant, United Kingdom)

10:00-10:30

The citizen participation in the environmental management plan and expected empowerment as its determinant

Yukio HIROSE (Nagoya University, Japan)

10:30-11:30

Discussion

11:45-13:15

Lunch

<Session 4>

13:15-15:15

Developing watershed diagnosis methodology for consensus building

13:15-13:45

Interface between material cyclings and human dimensions

Eitaro WADA (RIHN, Japan)

13:45-14:15

On using "ToolBox" for river basin management

Jan HASSING (GWP Resource Center, DHI, Denmark)

14:15-15:15

Discussion

15:15-15:30

Break

<Session 5>

15:30-17:00

General Discussion and Summary

17:00

Closing Address

Shigeo YACHI (RIHN, Japan)